

RODNEY CARRINGTON Laughter's Good Tour

Texas native, Rodney Carrington has been making audiences laugh for almost twenty years with his unique brand of stand-up comedy. The country singer-songwriter has recorded eight major label comedy albums which have sold more than two million copies ... two of which have been certified Gold. His albums include such hit comedy-inspired songs as "Dancin' With a Man", "Show Them to Me" and "Don't Look Now". His Christmas album, Make It Christmas features the song, "Camouflage and Christmas Lights". Carrington is also an actor having starred in his own sitcom, Rodney which ran for two seasons on ABC. As well, he co-wrote and co-starred in the feature film, Beer for My Horses with Toby Keith. In 2008, Carrington co-starred in Trace Adkins' hit music video, "I Got My Game On" and later won a CMT Music Video Award for "Supporting Character of the Year" for his role. He went on to receive extensive airplay on CMT for his 2009 comedy sketch music video, "If I'm the Only One" ... the song also debuted at #2 on Billboard's Comedy Music charts. In addition, he released a book entitled Rodney Carrington: Coming Clean. Carrington is currently gearing up for his North American "Laughter's Good" tour where he'll perform a mix of his comedic songs and his hilarious stand-up.
