FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

As a result of multiple positive cases of COVID-19 identified at Triumph Foods in the past 48 hours, the city of St. Joseph Health Department has been notified that testing will be conducted on all employees at the St. Joseph facility.

Northwest Health Services is planning to conduct the tests as early as Friday afternoon, dependent on arrival of test kits earlier in the day. Results of these tests are anticipated within 48 hours.

Approximately 125 Triumph employees will be tested by Mosaic Life Care on Friday, April 24, with results anticipated within 24 hours of the testing.
